Christmas Parade

Hooray! The Phuncoast Parrotheads will once again participate in the Flagler Beach Holiday at the Beach Parade! The parade will take place on Saturday, December 2 at 1 pm. The Parrotheads are ready to strut their feathers for everyone gathered on A1A to celebrate the holiday season. Our float will showcase the spirit of the late Jimmy Buffett...his lifestyle, his music and his sense of philanthropy. We will highlight what makes Parrotheads fun, active members of the community as well as how we give back to many through our various charities. In order to make our entry successful, we will need club participation. Many enthusiastic members signed up to help at the October phlocking, but we would love to have even more join us. There is something for everyone to do ...from wrapping gift boxes to decorating trailers to walking the parade route giving out beads, leis, candy canes and other special prizes. If you are interested in helping and haven't already given your name, please share it with Moya Thompson or Donna Senn at your first opportunity. We look forward to having you join us.

Please help us get a jump on our parade planning by bringing some wrapped (holiday) empty boxes to next phlocking on November 18 at Beach Front Grill.
